SIGN UP DAY:
MAY 4TH

KIDS, TEENS, ADULTS, & SENIORS

Join Us!

Greetings! Berlin is a wonderful place to be in the Springtime and it is even better during the Summer. We have a variety of activities waiting for those of all ages in the community. Our Mission here at the Parks and Recreation Department has always been to provide high quality leisure time services and facilities to the residents of Berlin and surrounding communities. This is accomplished through departmental programs and services that are open to all ages.

PLEASE NOTE: If you see a program you or your child is interested in, but aren't the age requirement listed, please don't fret - contact us in the office. Arrangements can be made as we hope to promote all ages learning this summer! First day sign up is at Clay Lamberton School, Saturday, May 4th 9:00-11:00 am. Registration forms will be accepted at Berlin City Hall starting on Monday, May 6th. Forms will be available at Parks & Recreation Office, other Berlin locations, and on the city website.

REGISTRATION OPENS: SATURDAY, MAY 4, 9:00 AM

Bike Around Berlin Memorial Day Weekend

Berlin Parks & Recreation would like to invite you to participate in a bike ride around Berlin on Saturday, May 25th. Beginning at 10:00 and continuing until lunch, we will head to select locations around Berlin and stop for brief historical tidbits concerning our City's past, present, and potential!

All ages welcome, you must bring your own bike. Children must be accompanied by an adult. The City of Berlin is not responsible for any damage or injuries obtained during bike ride.

If interested: Call 361-5437 so we don't leave without you!

Program Information

FEES

Resident and non-resident fees are as listed under course offerings. Registration forms without the proper fee will be returned.

RES = Resident of the City of Berlin. Residential recreation program fees apply to individuals who reside within Berlin City limits with no fire number.

SDR = Berlin School District Resident

NR = Non-Resident

Note: City residents contribute to the overall funding of the Parks & Recreation Department through residential property taxes.

PAYMENT METHOD

The Parks & Recreation department accepts check and/or cash in the exact amount.

ENROLLMENT

Registrations will be processed in the order in which they are received. Enrollment is not guaranteed. We reserve the right to cancel classes because of low enrollment after a class has started and to close further enrollment when a class is filled. All participants must register and pay for classes prior to attending the first session. Consider yourself enrolled for the program unless someone from the Parks and Recreation Department contacts you.

DEADLINES

Registrations must be received before registration deadlines. Registration for each class ends 48 hours before the start date of the class. No telephone registrations accepted. No exceptions.

PARTICIPATION IN PROGRAMS

The department reserves the right to cancel or modify the times, locations, combine classes, change instructors, and/or costs of any program should the need arise. You will not be notified of dates, times, or confirmation of classes. All AGE requirements are as of the first day of the program. All GRADE requirements are the grade the child is going into.

INSURANCE

The City of Berlin does NOT carry individual accident insurance for injuries that may occur while participating in or en-route to any program. Participants should review their insurance policies for coverage.

CANCELLATIONS/REFUNDS

Any participant wishing to receive a refund must notify the department before the second scheduled program begins. A full refund will be issued if a program is cancelled. Programs not meeting minimum registration requirements will be cancelled and refunds issued. Program cancellations or modifications due to weather conditions will be announced on the City Website under the Parks and Recreation tab prior to program start time or check with the Parks & Recreation Department at 361-5437.

Arts in the Parks

What is Arts in the Parks?

This program was created to offer and encourage more experimentation with different art mediums. On each Thursday evening listed, students will have the chance to try a new art medium each week. Each program requires separate registration and there is no limit. Sign up for one or sign up for them all! This program was also designed to encourage use of all the parks located in Berlin - each class will take place at a different park location. Right now, those locations aren't assigned. This is due to the often surprising and changing weather and the possibility of flooding. Please don't despair as we will notify all registered students where the class will take place well in advance. If you are interested in trying something new and only have an hour or two to spare on a Thursday evening AND are itching to get outside - join us for one of these programs!

Registration is required.

Rain date location will be the Berlin Senior Center.

SPARKLE! SMILE! SHINE!

Let your artistic talents "shine" with this fun 11 x 14 Canvas art project for youth of all ages. Youth will paint and "bling" out an 11x14 canvas for display in their rooms to inspire them to "shine." This program is hosted by the Green Lake County Fair. The instructor will share with youth how they could enter their finished project in the 2019 Green Lake County Fair.

Unable to make a class? Don't worry! The City of Berlin has eight parks available for public use that open beginning May 15th. Check out the city website for detailed information on what is offered at each location under the Parks & Recreation tab.

You may have known about the parks, but did you know Berlin has tons of other things to do too? There are plenty of spots at Riverside Campgrounds that you can reserve, shelter houses available for rent, boat landings, and walking trails including the Mascoutin Valley State Trail that runs for 12 miles.

Sharing with Youth Day

What is Sharing with Youth Day?

This is where Parks & Recreation offers a full day of classes created for youth in the community - for FREE. It is important to us that all children have a chance to participate and benefit from these classes.

The date of Wednesday, August 7 has been set aside as that day. This is our 16th year of being able to offer some free programs on this day! Thank you to all the volunteers who have given their time to share their interests with youth. These programs could not be offered otherwise.

Registration is Required - No Fees - Programs have limited room

LITTLE ENTREPRENEURS' WORKSHOP

Professional Series

What is Professional Series?

It is classes that are offered by local businesses on Monday evenings at different locations around Berlin. The purpose behind this class creation was to offer a connection between different professions that are located in the area with those genuinely interested in those professions. The classes offer interested individuals a chance to ask questions about a profession they might be interested in pursuing. It also offers the professional a chance to share any knowledge they wish they had known before embarking into that profession. Class size is limited to 5 to offer all participants a chance to speak individually with the presenter. Please keep an eye on the Parks & Recreation website as we may be able to add additional professions.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scouts offers the best leadership development experience for girls in the world. Research shows that girls learn best in an all-girl, girl-led, and girl-friendly environment. We take the potential of girls, combine it with research-backed programming, and add caring adult mentors. Whether she's building a robotic arm, coding her first app, building a shelter in the backcountry, or earning her Girl Scout Gold Award – the highest award in the world for girls, a Girl Scout has an exciting array of choices to suit her interests at every age 5K-12th grade. For further information contact: Jenni Hostettler at 920-955-3414 jhostettler@gsnwgl.org

BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scouts are one of the largest youth organizations in the United States. In our community, Boy Scout Troop 673 is a collection of youth participating in activities and training to become responsible citizens by building character and self-reliance through participation in a wide range of outdoor activities and educational programs. Each child learns about leadership, humility, respect, discipline and sense of community through fun yet challenging experiences. Email john.emanuele1@gmail.com

Thank You!

Berlin Parks & Recreation would like to thank all of the instructors, teachers, volunteers, students, businesses, local groups, organizations, and the Berlin Area School District for helping make this summer such a success! Our department would not have been able to offer such a variety of classes, at a variety of locations and times, without the assistance and support of these members of the public.

Thank you for supporting your local community!
