- 3) Adjourn

Sec. 82-641. - Consideration of factors in granting permit.

- (a) When granting a conditional use or special exception permit, the board of appeals shall take into consideration, in addition to the specific conditions provided in this article, the effect of the proposed use upon the health, safety and general welfare of occupants of surrounding lands. The board of appeals shall consider, among other things, the particular facts and circumstances of each proposed use in terms of the following standards, and shall find substantial evidence that such use on the proposed location will:
- (1) Be designed, constructed, operated and maintained to be harmonious and appropriate in appearance with the existing or intended character of the general vicinity, and that such use will not change the essential character of the area.
 - (2) Not be hazardous or disturbing to existing or future neighboring uses.
 - (3) Not be detrimental to property in the immediate vicinity or to the community as a whole.
 - (4) Be adequately served by essential public facilities and services such as highways, streets, police and fire protection, drainage structures, refuse disposal and schools, or that the persons or agencies responsible for the establishment of the proposed use shall be able to adequately provide any such service.
 - (5) Have vehicular approaches to the property which shall be designed not to create interference with traffic on surrounding public streets, alleys, roads or sidewalks.
 - (6) Not be detrimental to or endanger the public health, safety, morals, comfort or general welfare.
 - (7) Not impede the normal and orderly development and improvement of the surrounding property for uses permitted in the district.
 - (8) Not violate state or federal floodplain or wetland areas.
- (b) The applicant for a conditional use permit or special exception permit must demonstrate that the application and all requirements and conditions established by the city relating to the conditional use, or special exception permit as applicable, are or shall be satisfied, both of which must be supported by substantial evidence. The board of appeal's decision to approve or deny the permit must be supported by substantial evidence. The board of appeals may require additional requirements and conditions that may be deemed necessary in order for the conditional use or special exception requested to meet the standards of this article. Such additional requirements and conditions may include, but not limited to, requirements pertaining to lot coverage, lot area, setbacks, off-street parking and loading, pedestrian and vehicular accessways, storage, fencing, screening, landscaping, open space, height limitations, lighting and hours of operation. However, any requirement or condition imposed by the board of appeals must be related to the purpose of the ordinance and be based on substantial evidence. All requirements and conditions imposed by the city must be reasonable and, to the extent practicable, measurable and may include conditions such as the permit's duration, transfer, or renewal. If an applicant for a conditional use permit or special exception permit meets or agrees to meet all of the requirements and conditions specified in this article and those imposed by the board of appeals, the board of appeals shall grant the conditional use permit, or special exception permit as applicable.
