

Berlin Parks

Longcroft Park

Nathan Strong Park

Mound Street Park

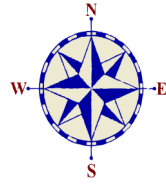

Volunteer Park

Forsyth Park

Longcroft Park and Berlin Locks Park are perfect for those looking to fish. Nathan Strong Park offers gorgeous views of Victorian homes as well as a gazebo and war memorials. This park hosts the annual Christmas Tree Lighting ceremony and the Farmers Market on Tuesday evenings each summer. Mound Street Park and Forsyth Park have playgrounds that are a perfect way for children to burn off some energy. For those who just want some fresh air, check out Firefighter's Park and Volunteer Park that contain vibrant flower beds and benches to sit down. Both are located on Berlin's main drag. Berlin is sure to have something for everyone so step out and take advantage of all we have to offer!

Where is Berlin, Wisconsin?

Nestled along the shore of the Fox River is your opportunity to escape the pressures of every day life and return to a simpler time and place. Berlin is located a mere 20 miles west of Oshkosh.

Reserve one of our parks facilities for your next event.
Visit CityofBerlin.net
Click 'Book Now' to Reserve

Come and enjoy our beautiful parks!

CITY OF BERLIN
PARKS FACILITIES OFFICE

142 Water St.
Berlin, WI 54923

Phone: 920-361-5422

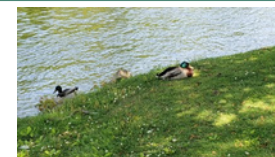

Email: parkandrec@cityofberlin.wi.gov

Visit us on Facebook:

Park & Recreation Department Berlin WI

Riverside Park & Campground

Thirty-eight beautiful acres for fun and relaxation! All twenty-two campsites are alongside the Fox River!

Fun at the Park

Great facilities for the athletes!

Relaxation at the Park

Riverside Park boasts a well-kept walking trail along the wonderful Fox River that is a hot spot for walkers, runners, and bikers. Boaters, picnickers, and fishermen are also plentiful in the park.

The Campground

Open May 15th to October 15th
(weather permitting)

Camping: $30/night, $180/week

Wood: $5 per 8 piece bundle

TRANSPORT OF FIREWOOD IS PROHIBITED

Dump Station: $10 for public use

(Free for overnight Riverside Campers)

Five unique playgrounds

Disc golf is a favorite for many!

For more information visit www.cityofberlin.net
Click 'Book Now' to Reserve